OUR LADY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord | April 9, 2023

Under Mary's mantle, and with the guidance of the Holy Trinity, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament seeks to share God's love by celebrating the sacraments, proclaiming the gospel, and serving the needs of all His children.

JESUS LOVES YOU!

“Jesus Christ loves you; he gave his life to save you; and now he is living at your side every day to enlighten, strengthen, and free you.” In Evangelii gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel), Pope Francis reminds us that this is the central proclamation of the Christian faith. If we let this message soak into our hearts, then all of life finds a new direction and new meaning.

“Jesus Christ loves you.” Everything begins here. Too often we can fall into the trap of thinking that God is angry with us, that he is punishing us, or that he does not care about us at all. None of these is true. God willed and created each and every one of us, and everything that he has made is good. God does not want to be far away from us, and he does not want us to be far away from him. That is why Jesus came to be among us - to confirm for us the closeness and tenderness of the love of God.

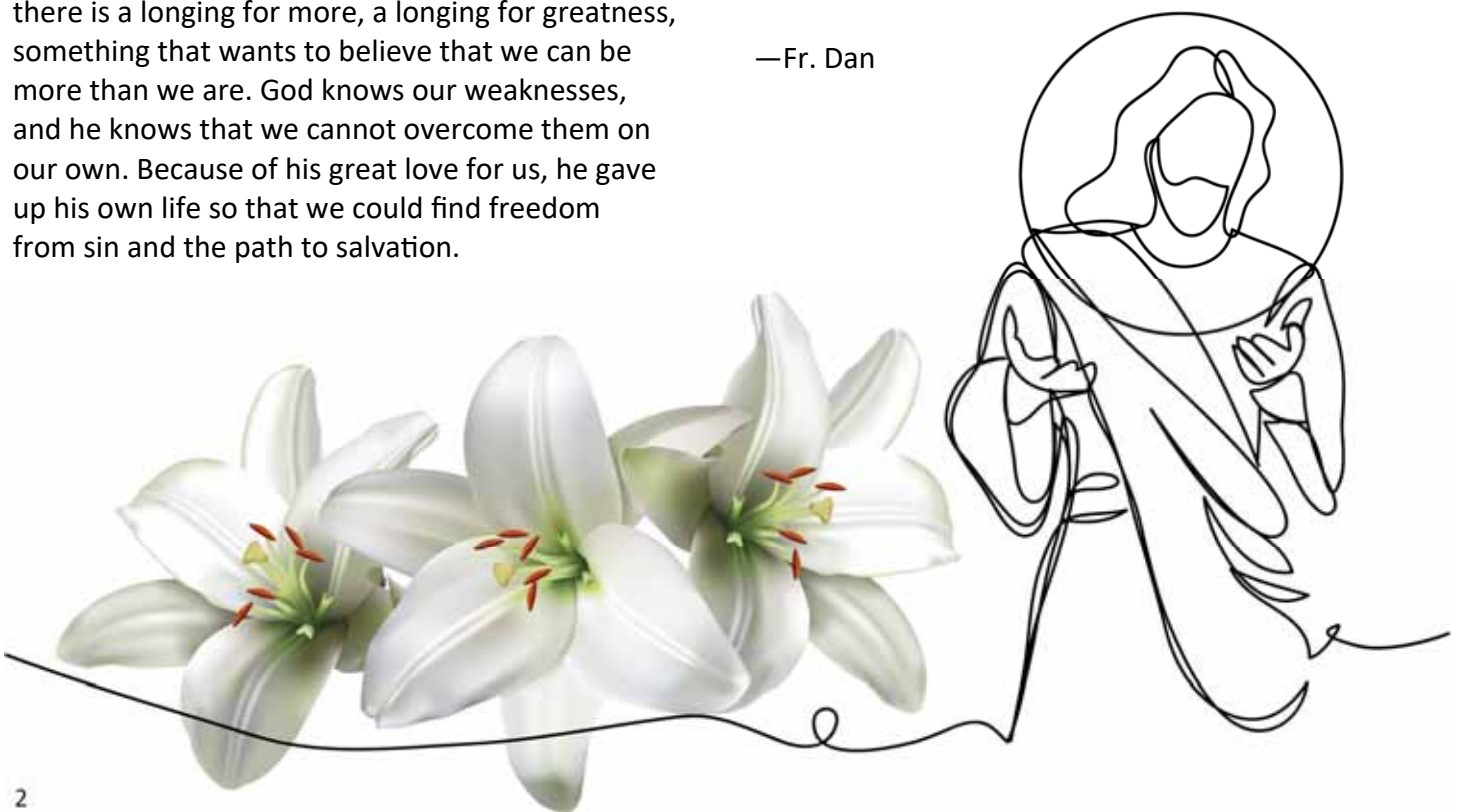

“He gave his life to save you.” One of the most challenging things to admit to ourselves is that we cannot do everything on our own. We are not all-powerful. We are not perfect. And yet in our hearts there is a longing for more, a longing for greatness, something that wants to believe that we can be more than we are. God knows our weaknesses, and he knows that we cannot overcome them on our own. Because of his great love for us, he gave up his own life so that we could find freedom from sin and the path to salvation.

“Now he is living at your side every day to enlighten, strengthen, and free you.” In the example of Jesus, we learn that the way to everlasting life is found only when we also make a gift of ourselves in love to others. When we try to live the way of selflessness and love, we can easily become overwhelmed. Who has the strength to give, and give, and give, and never stop? In truth, only God. So Jesus promised that he would not leave us orphans. In his resurrection, he continues to be alive, so that we can always rely on him to give us what we need.

On the first Easter morning, everything changed for his disciples. Their grief and sorrow turned first into confusion as they tried to understand what they had seen: the tomb was empty. The confusion turned into wonder and amazement as they came to realize: not even death was stronger than the love of God. Wonder turned into indescribable joy when they saw him.

Jesus Christ loves you; he gave his life to save you; and now he is living at your side every day to enlighten, strengthen, and free you. On this Easter morning, will you let him?

—Fr. Dan
