OUR LADY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time | August 20, 2023

Under Mary's mantle, and with the guidance of the Holy Trinity, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament seeks to share God's love by celebrating the sacraments, proclaiming the gospel, and serving the needs of all His children.

The Canaanite Woman's Faith

Faith, defined as complete trust in someone or something, is very powerful.

Though not Jewish, the Canaanite woman had faith and kept asking Jesus for help until she received an answer. We know who Jesus is. Jesus does not judge people. We should continually seek Him as the answer to our problems. We need to remain humble when we come to God in prayer for things we are asking, and we need to keep asking, to be persistent like the Canaanite woman. We should not give up when the initial answer is no, just as the Canaanite woman did not give up. Like her we should not worry about what people are thinking about us. God's opinion is more important than other people's opinions. If we focus on Him as our Lord and Savior, everything will fall into its rightful place. Knowing Him will give us strength and courage now, and then we will be with Him in His kingdom.

Faith is very powerful.

As we continue to become Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Parish, with the faith of the Canaanite woman, the women of our parish community are energizing and reimagining our parish Women's Club. Historically, Queen of the Rosary and St. Julian Eymard each had their separate Women's Councils/Clubs and now the goal is to bring this community to a greater level of involvement for the women of Elk Grove Village. Operating generally under a set of guidelines from the Archdiocese of Chicago Council of Catholic Women (ACCW), the OLBS Women's Club is an inclusive community of Catholic women who seek to empower and educate its members in spirituality, leadership and service. Through a combination of faith-based and social activities, women of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Parish and women throughout the community are invited to join at any level of volunteerism—either leading new or traditional activities or simply by coming to support events. All are welcome—and all ideas are valued! The goal is inspiring faith and spreading the Good News whether this involves participating in a Lenten church service supper or retreat, an evening of Bingo or Bunco, painting and wine nights, Holiday Angel Tree Family Adoptions or baking for the October Bake Sale.

As we continue growing in faith and reimagining our OLBS Women's Club, many voices are needed. So with this in mind, we invite the women of our parish to two very important Fall events:

First, please join Fr. Dan at Be Transformed, the Parish Morning of Reflection on Saturday, August 26th. The morning will begin with Mass at Queen of the Rosary Church at 8:15am, and following Mass we'll move over to Queen of the Rosary School. Based on the teaching of Romans chapter 12 and building on our year of Healing, Hope and Hospitality, Fr. Dan will guide us in an interactive morning of reflection to introduce the parish vision for our new pastoral year.

And next, building on the momentum of Be Transformed, our Women's Club is hosting our Fall Planning Meeting on Monday, August 28th. All women in the parish are invited to share ideas and help steer the course for a new year of OLBS Women's Club. We'll meet at 6:30pm in Shea Hall at St. Julian Eymard Church and we can't wait to see you there!

For additional information, please contact the Parish Office at (847) 979-0901 or info@olbsegv.org.

Who is Jesus to you? A friend, an acquaintance, a teacher?

How do you think Peter felt when Jesus said He would build His Church on him?
