OUR LADY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH

*You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.
—Matthew 20:4*

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time | September 24, 2023

Under Mary's mantle, and with the guidance of the Holy Trinity, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament seeks to share God's love by celebrating the sacraments, proclaiming the gospel, and serving the needs of all His children.

Dear Friends,

As we come upon the anniversary of receiving our new name as “Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Parish,” I think it’s good to continue to celebrate the providence of God in leading us into this reality. First, we remember why this name was chosen for our new parish. The title of “Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament” is a beautiful way to honor the Marian heritage of the former Queen of the Rosary Parish, and it was also first used for the Blessed Mother by St. Peter Julian Eymard. He had a very strong devotion to Our Lady and to the Holy Eucharist, and was the founder of the Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament. These two pillars are a wonderful foundation upon which we are building up our new parish identity.

Some of you will know that one of the prayer gardens outside of St. Julian Eymard Church has already had a statue of Mary as Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament for quite some time. This image of Mary depicts her as first described by Fr. Eymard: “The Blessed Virgin holds the Infant in her arms; and He holds a chalice and a Host.”

To honor our ongoing transformation under the patronage of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, and to give glory to God through His Blessed Mother, we are going to install a statue of Mary as Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament in each of our two churches. These statues will be approximately five and a half feet tall, and have a lead time of several months before they will be ready for us. The approximate cost of these two statues will be $5000. If you would like to help contribute towards the cost of these statues, please contact the parish office at (847) 979-0901 or info@olbsegv.org.

St. Peter Julian Eymard is known as “the apostle of the Eucharist”, and is one of the patrons of the national Eucharistic Revival that the bishops of the United States have called us to this year. In God there are no coincidences, and so we can see the hand of His Providence guiding us toward a deeper understanding of and devotion to our new patroness, just as Fr. Eymard recommends:

“Where on earth shall we find Jesus but in the arms of Mary! Was it not she who gave us the Eucharist? It was her consent to the Incarnation of the Word that inaugurated the great mystery of reparation to God and union with us which Jesus accomplished during His mortal life, and that he continues in the Eucharist. Without Mary we shall never find Jesus, for she possesses Him in her heart. There He takes His delight, and those who wish to know His inmost virtues, to experience the privilege of His intimate love, must seek these in Mary... We can only go to Him through her. The more we love the Eucharist, the more we must love Mary.”

Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, pray for us!

—Fr. Dan

Gospel In Focus: October 1, 2023

Jesus teaches the chief priests that those who do the will of the Father will enter the Kingdom. "When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did..." —Matthew 21:32

Discussion Questions

How do you think the chief priests reacted when Jesus told them the story? How did tax collectors and prostitutes do the will of the Father that the priests did not?

How does Jesus' story change our hearts towards our enemies?

What did God ask of you this week? How did you respond?

Catholic Commentary on The Chosen Season 3

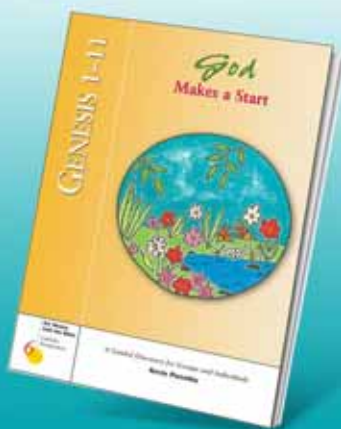

Each episode of The Chosen from Season 3 will be available to watch at 6:00pm at the parish, or you may watch each episode on your own. At 7:00pm, we will watch the commentary video together and then discuss as a group.

When: Thursdays, September 21st through November 16th, 2023. The Chosen Christmas Special will be presented December 7th.

Where: Join us via Zoom or in person at St. Julian Eymard Church Annex.

Cost: There is no cost for this study.

To sign up, call 847 979-0901, or stop by the Parish Office.

TUESDAY MORNING GROUP

returns 9/12/23 and will be reading: Genesis 1-11: God Makes a Start helps Bible-study participants put the creation story in its proper historical, cultural, and theological contexts, and goes beyond the story of creation to discuss the first sin and God's starting over with the flood. In the end, we come to see the story of creation—and re-creation—as part of God's ongoing story with us today.

Do you desire a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ? Are you looking to participate more fully in the life of the parish and connect with other young adult Catholics? 7th graders had a great time celebrating Grandparents Day on September 18th. Not only were some of the Grandparents able to join us in the classroom to answer a VIP interview and play trivia games, but the 7th graders helped lead the school mass as well. Students had a visit from Fr. Dan who taught the students about the first reading and even had time to answer some of the questions students had to ask him!
