OUR LADY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH

"But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants."
—Mark 4:32

Under Mary's mantle, and with the guidance of the Holy Trinity, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament seeks to share God's love by celebrating the sacraments, proclaiming the gospel, and serving the needs of all His children.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Many of you will have seen the update about our new principal, Mr. Ryan Andersen, that we sent out via email at the end of May. I know he is looking forward to getting to know the community here, once he officially begins in July. I am also happy to give an update about our new associate pastor.

Fr. Paul Adaja is a priest of the Diocese of Ekiti in Nigeria, ordained in 2009. Since 2013 he has been in the Archdiocese of Chicago and completed a Masters in Biblical Studies and a PhD in Theology from Loyola University Chicago. In that time, he has also served as the associate pastor of Sts. Peter and Lambert in Skokie and St. Gertrude in Edgewater.

I know Fr. Paul is very much looking forward to joining us beginning on July 1, and I know that you will all make him feel welcome when he arrives. In the meantime, let's keep our focus on thanking and celebrating Fr. Louis for his ministry and service here among us as the first associate pastor of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Parish! His last Masses with us will be the 5pm Mass at St. Julian on Saturday, June 29, and the 10:30am Mass at Queen of the Rosary on Sunday, June 30.

—Fr. Dan

FROM THE USCCB ON FATHER'S DAY

Fathers' Irreplaceable Role in Welcoming Life

By Most Reverend Shelton J. Fabre, Archbishop of Louisville

Although fathers do not physically carry their children from conception, fathers can still be overwhelmed by an unexpected pregnancy. We Christians must support men who, in following the example of St. Joseph, choose to embrace their role as a father in all circumstances, but especially in challenging situations. St. Joseph was unexpectedly called to fatherhood amid extremely confusing and difficult circumstances. However, despite many obstacles, St. Joseph chose to be faithful. St. Joseph chose life by listening to God's will and consciously deciding to be a father to Jesus, the Son of God. Pope Saint John Paul II said that fathers are called to exhibit "generous responsibility for the life conceived under the heart of the mother" (Familiaris consortio 25). Like St. Joseph, all fathers are uniquely entrusted with the protection and defense of both mother and child and, in this way, safeguard the sanctity of human life. But biological fathers, because they do not physically carry the child, sometimes fail to truly father their children.

Our society increasingly tells fathers that they should have no say in the lives of their unborn children, no opportunity to choose to father their children. Our society seems to restrict the decisions regarding an unborn child solely to the discretion of the mother. In the face of false messages about fatherhood, we must respond with the truth that the role of a father "is of unique and irreplaceable importance" (FC 25). We know that the assistance and support of the father of a child, or lack thereof, can often be a deciding factor in a woman's decision to choose life. Tragically, there are men who sometimes pressure mothers to make the decision to abort the child, sinning grievously and making the cowardly choice. These men are not following the example of St. Joseph and are not exercising true, spiritual fatherhood.

This is because fatherhood extends beyond simple procreation and biology. Fatherhood is first a spiritual reality, because fatherhood has its origins in God who chose to reveal Himself to us as Our Father, sending his only Son for the sake of our salvation. Fathers therefore have a special and unique role "in revealing and in reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God" (FC 25). Fathers have a vital, unique, and important role to play in the personal and spiritual development of their children, and in reflecting the love of God the Father himself. Fathers are called to show the world the virtues of a tender protector, while living out the virtues of humility and courage.

In all circumstances, but especially in difficult circumstances, a father needs to be encouraged to faithfully accept the role entrusted to him by God and support the mother of his child. Through our prayers and through the intercession of St. Joseph, patron of fathers, may fathers come to know the irreplaceable role they hold in the lives of their children, and the responsibility they share in welcoming God's gift of new life!

At the time of writing, Most Reverend Shelton J. Fabre was Bishop of Houma-Thibodaux, chairman of the USCCB Ad Hoc Committee against Racism, and a member of the USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities.

Let's make this summer unforgettable together! And don't forget to keep an eye on the parish Bulletin and eNewsletter for faith, fellowship and fun happening around the parish all year long, even over the Summer.

Many of us know Joseph Alvarado from his service around the parish as an altar server, in youth ministry, helping at Summer Suppers and more.

At Elk Grove High School, Joseph was a member of the speech and debate teams. Through his service to the speech team, he was awarded the Adriana Salem Service Award. Outside of school, he is a member of Boy Scout Troop 95 where he is an Eagle Scout. For his project, he built an outdoor prayer garden at Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Parish—our beloved Joseph Garden. This provided an outdoor place of worship where people may pray in nice weather or when the church is closed.

Joseph will be attending Harper College with plans to study Fire Science in the pursuit of becoming a firefighter in the future. Congratulations, Joseph!

Starting mid-June...Wednesday Small Groups!
Get ready to kick back, hang out, and dive into some real talk about life, faith and all things God! Join the coolest crew in town, led by none other than the legendary Mr. Van and a bunch of other rad adults who are all about keeping it real and having a blast while we explore some big questions.
