FAREWELL FROM FR. LOUIS

Dear OLBS family,

As I prepare to conclude my four-year assignment here at Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Parish, I find my heart filled with immense gratitude and affection for all of you. Your warmth, patience and attentiveness have made my time here truly special. From the moment I arrived, you made me feel at home, and for that, I am eternally grateful.

During these four years, I have learned and grown in countless ways, not only in my vocation but also personally. The welcoming environment you provided allowed me to master many new skills and deepen my understanding of my calling. I now feel more at home in the United States, have a better command of the English language, and am able to converse with confidence.

The community's willingness to accept and support me through my flaws, as well as my talents, has been a source of great encouragement. The kindness and goodness I have experienced here will stay with me always. My family also joins me in thanking you for the warm welcome and support you have shown me.

I want to extend a special thanks to the parish and school staff. Your dedication and hard work have been instrumental in creating a thriving, nurturing environment for everyone. Your support has been invaluable to me, and I am very proud of all that we have accomplished over these four years.

I am particularly grateful for your enthusiastic support of the Waves of Change Clean Water Project for Cameroon. This initiative has been the perfect culmination of my time here, demonstrating the incredible impact we can make when we come together in faith, fellowship and even fun.

And lastly, I wish to extend a special thanks to Fr. Dan. Thank you for your leadership and for giving me opportunities to lead and grow. And most of all, thank you for the brotherhood.

As I move on to my next assignment at St. Procopius/ Providence of God, I carry with me the cherished memories and lessons from these past four years. Please know that you will always be in my prayers, and I humbly ask that you keep me in yours. I hope you will come visit me in Pilsen!

Your brother, Louis M.

Grant Unto Them Eternal Rest...

Betty Ann Graham

Please pray for lives lost to violence and natural disasters.

We are thrilled to share this update on our Parish Lenten Almsgiving Project, Waves of Change, to bring accessible water to a remote village in Cameroon, Africa. As you may recall, the generous response to Waves of Change allowed us to provide not just one, but three wells. Please enjoy these photos and heartfelt letters of gratitude from the villagers of Nkoabang, Ebogo and Esse in Cameroon, Africa, where wells have been successfully installed and are now operational. These wells have brought the invaluable gift of clean, accessible water to these remote communities, transforming their daily lives. The residents' profound appreciation reflects the life-affirming impact of this essential resource, fostering health, hope and a brighter future for all!

We, residents of the village of Sakok by Nkoabang are happy and say thank you from the bottom of our hearts. Our women and children no longer travel miles in search of water. Our new well gives us pure water every day. We are grateful and may God return your gift a hundredfold. God bless your priest who thought of us, your parish and the entire Christian community.

Nkoabang

The residents of Ebogo 1 (Soa) say thank you. Thank you to all the Christian community who sent us the well and quenched our thirst. A thousand times thank you.

Ebogo

Nkoabang

Esse

Esse

Very dear brothers and sisters in Christ, we, the residents of Esse, are writing to express our gratitude to you for the precious gift that you offer us. There is an adage that says “Water Is Life!” This essential element of life that your generosity offers us, we assure you, will serve the well-being of the entire village without exception.

Our prayer on this occasion is that our Father, who loves us more than we love ourselves, will shower you with His blessings beyond your expectations. May He return to you a hundredfold and allow you to continue your generous ways. In all and for all, that the Name of Jesus Christ is praised!
