DISASTER RELIEF EFFORT

This weekend, we will take up a second collection to support Catholic Charities USA in their efforts to help those impacted by the devastation of Hurricanes Helene and Milton. Helene caused catastrophic damage to the Southeast, destroying communities, claiming more than 100 lives and leaving millions without power, and as we go to print, Milton is expected to make landfall and hit many of the same communities. All donations received for disaster aid will be allocated to the Catholic Charities agencies providing critical relief — including shelter, food and other humanitarian aid — to those most in need. You may place donations of cash or check in the marked baskets at the exits when you attend Mass, or select fund “Hurricane Helene Relief” from our online giving portal. Thank you for your generosity.

Please take a moment to read the national press release from Catholic Charities USA announcing the fundraising effort. Thank you for your continued prayers and support during this critical time.

ALEXANDRIA, Va. — As Hurricane Helene brings devastating, life-threatening conditions to communities across the Southeast, Catholic Charities USA (CCUSA), the official domestic relief agency of the Catholic Church in the U.S., has launched a dedicated disaster relief donation campaign. All funds raised will assist those displaced or suffering because of the storm.

To make a gift today in support of families and individuals whose lives have been upended by Hurricane Helene, please visit the CCUSA Hurricane Helene relief donation page. One hundred percent of all donations will be allocated to local Catholic Charities agencies, which will provide critical relief — including shelter, food and other humanitarian aid — to members of their communities. Gifts can also be made by texting “Hurricane” to 20406.
