OUR LADY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH

"My kingdom does not belong to this world."
—John 18:36

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe | 11/24/24

Under Mary's mantle, and with the guidance of the Holy Trinity, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament seeks to share God's love by celebrating the sacraments, proclaiming the gospel, and serving the needs of all His children.

Dear Parish Family, This week, I am excited to share our Annual Giving Impact Statement, which offers a meaningful look at our parish and school journey over the past year. Of course, you'll find the financials included, but moreover, it's filled with insights into our community's growth—the highs, the lows and the many ways we've grown together. And as we continue listening for God's transformative call this year with "Be Transformed: Discerning Our Charisms," I invite you to explore the latest stories from our "What's My Why" series. Enjoy these heartfelt reflections from our dedicated Parish Council Co-Chairs as they share their call to serving God's Kingdom. And don't forget to grab a copy of our FY24 Giving Impact Statement from the vestibule or view it online in the eNewsletter or at OLBSEGV.org. —Fr. Dan

Anita's Why

I moved to Elk Grove Village in 2007 and considered myself a "roaming Catholic." I attended Mass at both St. Julian and Queen of the Rosary, whichever mass time was convenient. As I sat during Mass, I saw people helping—ushers, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, etc. I thought, "Someday, I want to help." However, I was very comfortable in my pew and hesitant to step out of my comfort zone. I needed a little nudging.

I decided to start by learning more about God and His Word. My neighbor told me about a scripture school that she had attended called Chicago Catholic Scripture School, a Continuing Education Catholic Scripture School through Loyola University. The program guides students through the Bible in four years. I learned the history, geography, and culture of the times. Now, each week in Mass when I listen to the readings, God's Word speaks to me in a deeper way. I continue to grow in relationship to Him.

I was ready to step out of my comfort zone and get involved in the parish. I started as an usher, a member of the bereavement ministry, and the Journey of the Heart grief share ministry. As an usher, we welcome familiar faces and new faces each week. It feels like family. The Bereavement Ministry helps families in preparing the Funeral Liturgy for their loved ones. We listen and offer comfort and support during this difficult time, and we assist at the funeral Mass. Journey of the Heart, our grief share Ministry, is a faith-based grief share program where we meet participants where they are in their grief-healing journey. In a small group setting, we pray, read scripture, and share reflections on our "Journey of the Heart."

In 2023, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament convened our first full Parish Council meeting. I participated as the liaison for the Bereavement Ministry, but didn't know what to expect. What is a Parish Council? It was eye-opening for me to hear about all the ministries in our parish. I was excited for our parish and truly felt the Holy Spirit's presence bringing us together as a vibrant and faith-filled team with a collaborative effort to serve.

The Holy Spirit continued to guide me. Parish Council needed officers and members for its Executive Committee. I felt called to help and prayed that God would not give me more than I could handle. God had the plan. Julie Hirsch and I submitted our names as Co-Vice Chairs for the Parish Council. We felt that God had blessed us with different talents and gifts. Combining our gifts, we now serve the parish as Co-Chairs of the Parish Council and Executive Committee. (Think Doublemint gum!)

Each ministry that I am involved with, has helped me grow in my relationship with God. It has been both rewarding and humbling. It is not work, but service. It is joyful and joy-filled serving others, by using my time, talent, and treasure. Come join us and find Joy.

Blessings, Anita Dwyer

Julie's Why

The new parish theme this year is "Be Transformed: Discerning Our Charisms," and when speaking about prayer and discernment for identifying spiritual gifts, I speak from experience. My own path to serving on the Parish Council and Executive Committee involved both of those things. In fact, I questioned whether or not I wanted to serve on the Parish Council at all, let alone be on the Executive Committee. Some who know how actively I have been involved in the parish might be surprised by that.

For some backstory, my family moved to Elk Grove Village when I was nine months old. My parents were actively involved in parish life at St. Julian Eymard. My father was a lector, and both of my parents were Eucharistic ministers and catechists. As I got older, I became more involved in the parish as well. My fun fact is that I was the first female altar server at St. Julian. I was also an assistant catechist until I became old enough to have my own class. I joined the Women's Club and assisted in planning Women's Club services projects, events, and activities; and St. Julian Eymard celebrations. When we unified, I participated as a member of the naming committee and had the honor of being asked to be one of the speakers at our parking lot unity service. My faith and love for God have helped me through some extremely difficult times and I wanted to give back. We have been taught to show God our love through gifts of time, talent, and treasure. I didn't have a lot of treasure, and had not completely discerned my talents, but I certainly gave my time. Still, I hesitated when I saw that the parish was seeking new members for Parish Council. I had a lot going on at work, and I was taking online courses after work. So, I did not fill out an application or immediately volunteer to be a liaison.

Then, in August 2023, the parish held a “Be Transformed” morning of reflection. As an educator, I had just returned to work, and the event was at 8:15 on a Saturday morning so I didn’t immediately sign up. Then, in the days leading up to the event, there was a voice that kept entering my head telling me that I needed to attend. I was being called, and I am so glad I answered. I was able to reflect on my faith and engage in discussion with my randomly assigned tablemates, most of whom I didn’t know. I was able to learn from them and in turn they also connected to what I shared. From these connections, my mindset on joining Parish Council began to shift and wondering if there was something I could contribute on a larger scale, I volunteered to be the Women’s Club liaison.

At the second meeting, the need for Executive Committee members was discussed. I wasn’t ready to commit, but another liaison, who had known me most of my life, asked me to pray about it. I did, and I heard that same voice telling me that I could fill the role. But, still I hesitated, concerned about committing without knowing what was involved. Also, Anita Dwyer had been nominated, and I didn’t want to take that role from her if she was ready to commit. After connecting with Anita, I discovered that she felt the same as me, willing to serve, but also nervous about what being in line to chair the council meant. We proposed the idea of Co-Vice Chairs.

The plan was accepted and sharing this role with Anita, I have been able to foster connections with our priests and other ministry liaisons. I have learned more about all of the ministries our parish has to offer and what their missions are. I have also been given the opportunity to provide input and help lead discussions about future initiatives within the parish. Finally, I have continued to show my love for God by dedicating my time to making a difference in our parish community. I still don’t have a whole lot of treasure, I am an educator after all; however, I am more aware of my talents after taking the Spiritual Gifts Assessment. I was very surprised to learn that one of my charisms is leadership. Even though I was unsure of my charisms, prayer led me to my leadership position and showed me that God knew me all along.

There is a continued need for service to our parish through participation on the Parish Council and our ministries. I invite you to take the Spiritual Gifts Assessment. Then, take the time to reflect on your talents and pray about how God wants you to use those gifts to show your love for Him and how to spread that love throughout the community.

God Bless, Julie Hirsch
