OUR LADY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH

Yes, Lord, you know that I love you. — John 21:16

Thank you, Fr. Dan. May God bless you and keep you always.

Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul | June 29, 2025

Under Mary's mantle, and with the guidance of the Holy Trinity, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament seeks to share God's love by celebrating the sacraments, proclaiming the gospel, and serving the needs of all His children.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. DAN, ONE MORE TIME AS OLBS FOUNDING PASTOR

After learning that I would be moving to a new parish, I spoke with a friend about all the things that I would have to leave unfinished at Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament. He reminded me of this prayer, first presented by Cardinal John Dearden, but often misattributed to Oscar Romero:

"It helps, now and then, to step back and take a long view. The kingdom is not only beyond our efforts, it is even beyond our vision. We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of the magnificent enterprise that is God's work. Nothing we do is complete, which is a way of saying that the Kingdom always lies beyond us. No statement says all that could be said. No prayer fully expresses our faith. No confession brings perfection. No pastoral visit brings wholeness. No program accomplishes the Church's mission. No set of goals and objectives includes everything. This is what we are about. We plant the seeds that one day will grow. We water seeds already planted, knowing that they hold future promise. We lay foundations that will need further development. We provide yeast that produces far beyond our capabilities. We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something, and to do it very well. It may be incomplete, but it is a beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord's grace to enter and do the rest. We may never see the end results, but that is the difference between the master builder and the worker. We are workers, not master builders; ministers, not messiahs. We are prophets of a future not our own."

I will always be so thankful for the opportunity I have had to serve here as your pastor. I am grateful to so many people who have worked so hard to build up this community and take these steps into a new identity and a new future. I pray that I have helped to water some small seeds, and laid some small part of a good foundation. I also want to ask forgiveness for my own flaws and failings, especially from anyone I have caused any hurt, and for any good that, in my own weakness, I have failed to do.

In The Dry Salvages, T.S. Eliot wrote:

'Fare forward, you who think that you are voyaging;
You are not those who saw the harbour
Receding, or those who will disembark.
Here between the hither and the farther shore
While time is withdrawn, consider the future
And the past with an equal mind.

I know that I have been changed for the better by being your pastor. I know that God will continue to lead you into the many good works He has prepared for you. I know that you will find in Fr. Arthur a loving and eager shepherd, who is eager to walk the next steps of the journey with Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament.

Not fare well, but fare forward, voyagers!

-Fr. Dan

Gospel in Focus: July 6, 2025

Jesus sends out His disciples to preach the Gospel. "He said to them, 'The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest.'" —Luke 10:2

Discussion Questions

Jesus sends out His disciples in pairs. Who is someone that helps you in your faith journey? Why do we need others as we walk with Christ?

What keeps you from sharing Jesus with others?

Who is God calling you to share His love with this week?

PARISH SCHOOL—QUEEN OF THE ROSARY SCHOOL

Hearts on Fire in Louisville! Earlier this month, a group of teens—including proud alumni of our Queen of the Rosary School—set out on an unforgettable journey to Catholic Heart Work Camp in Louisville, KY. After receiving a special blessing at Saturday evening Mass, they hit the road bright and early Sunday morning, ready to serve. On the way, they prepped for the week by writing Bible verses on clothespins to clip on friends, sharing words of encouragement and faith.

Throughout the week, our teens rolled up their sleeves, joining work groups to help local residents with home repairs, painting projects and community cleanup. It was a week full of sweat, service and Spirit—and a powerful reminder that OLBS is alive, generous and ready to be the hands and feet of Christ in the world!

Got a sunny summer story to share? We want to hear all about your adventures—big or small! Whether you're road tripping, volunteering, chilling by the pool or catching up with cousins, send your stories (and pics!) to the school or parish office. We just might feature you in the bulletin or our back-to-school newsletter!

STEWARDSHIP REPORT

Your Stewardship Treasure returned to God for the support of our Parish ministries and His Church.

Thank you for your generosity.

Weekly Offertory June 22, 2025 (Sunday Attendance: 857)	$8,177.00
2025 Annual Catholic Appeal Pledges (Projected Rebate $21,000)	$82,289.00

Our parish goal for this year's Annual Appeal is $60,564, and a portion of every dollar over that comes back to us! This year, we're putting those rebate funds toward an exciting project—updating our playground! Used by our school and parish for Totus Tuus and Pray & Play Sundays, this space is a blessing for students and young families. With a tentative $130,000 budget and a $50,000 grant already secured, our support will help make this dream a reality. Past rebates have funded sound systems, security cameras, vestibule screens and soon, bathroom upgrades—let's keep building up our parish together!
